GLORY DAYS

Colin McRae showed off his potent Mk2 Escort at Castle Combe last weekend. Wonder if he can get the Skoda Fabia WRC as sideways on Wales Rally GB this September...

MARIN

WHAT A PIG!

Yep, this one's a bit of a porker, but at least this Aussie V8 promo girl has taken a bit of shine to him

QUOTES OF THE WEEK

"Narian is a bit wild, have said to him, 'Cal down, be smooth, do overdrive it.' I suppose he does have 1.5 billion people sitting on his shoulder, and that makes life quite difficult"

Johnny Herbert ponders the conundrums thrown by his new role as Jordan sporting relations director

"It would most definitely be satisfying to win next year ahead of BMW"

Frank Williams has a few scores to settle, then

"He raced with an Irish licence in F1. He raced with a shamrock on his helmet. He raced with an Irish team. He has an Irish passport. But, yes, he does have a plummy British accent"

A1 GP Ireland boss Mark Gallagher concedes new driver Ralf Firman doesn't quite fit the bill when it comes to convincing the world he's Irish

"It was a good jigger to drive"

Aussie V8 racer Russell Ingall. We think he means that the car worked well

"You know you're in the wrong sport when both your drivers have Learjets, and you don't"

Spare a thought for poor old jet-less NASCAR team owner Joe Gibbs

"Yes, our drivers will be made to pay the £1 toll. I'll be very interested to see who reaches for his wallet last..."

Alan Gow shows faith in BTCC stars, who will cross the Forth Road Bridge in a pre-Knockhill demo

"I just handed the championship to Sébastien"

A crestfallen Paul Tracy after he crashed out of the lead in Denver
